

Althing was called to order by King Gregor.

King Gregor explained that there is a section in the Corpora that says to vote on Corpora changes you must be present at the Althing. This has not been enforced in the past, therefore it will not be enforced today, as there was no advanced warning. After today's Althing, this section of the Corpora will be enforced.

First order of business. An addition to the Monarch section of the Corpora. (See the voting agenda for complete wording.) King Gregor opened for comments or questions. There were none. Open for voting. 35 for 2 Against.

Second order of business. An addition of Principality to the Subgroups section of the Corpora. (See voting agenda for complete wording). King Gregor went through the proposed changes. Questions were asked and clarifications were made. Open for voting. 25 For. 5 Against.

New business.
